

HILTON HOTELS & RESORTS AND EMBASSY SUITES HOTELS

Hilton Hotels & Resorts and Embassy Suites Hotels offer professional meeting planners an array of great locations and quality meeting facilities. For over 80 years, Hilton Hotels and Resorts have been the meeting and convention expert with the expertise, experience and facility size to make any event—whether 50 or 2,000—a success. Embassy Suites offers meeting planners and delegates “more” of what they need: “more” space (2-room suites), “more” value (evening Manager’s Reception and complimentary cooked-to-order breakfast), plus flexible meeting facilities for meetings from 6 people in a conference suite to 300 people in one of our ballrooms. Both brands offer a sophisticated, business-oriented hotel experience. And each provides the dependable staff and the confidence that comes from expertise and knowledge in planning meetings.

The Hilton Hotels Corporation now encompasses more than 2,000 hotels in 50 countries, representing nine distinct brands. With a standard of hospitality that has earned recognition around the world, we provide the kind of service and tools that can make your job easier. How do we do that? With Hilton Direct.
